

THE Dan Smoot Report

DAN SMOOT

Vol. 11, No. 51 (Broadcast 539) December 20, 1965 Dallas, Texas

VOTING RECORDS, 1965

In five previous issues of this Report, I have tabulated 84 roll call votes in the national Congress. Tabulations herein bring the total to 96 for the first session of the 89th Congress—46 in the Senate, 50 in the House.

Percentages in the listings which follow are the conservative ratings which legislators earned by stands they took on the roll call votes tabulated.

BEST SENATORS: During 1965, no U. S. Senator earned a perfect (100%) conservative rating. The following 22 Senators (12 Republicans, 10 Democrats) were the best conservatives in the Senate during 1965:

Byrd (D, Va.)	98%	Hruska (R, Neb.)	87%	Ellender (D, La.)	76%	Ervin (D, N. C.)	73%
Robertson (D, Va.)	98%	Curtis (R, Neb.)	84%	Williams (R, Del.)	76%	Murphy (R, Cal.)	72%
Eastland (D, Miss.)	93%	Russell (D, Ga.)	82%	Young (R, N. D.)	76%	Russell (D, S. C.)	72%
Thurmond (R, S. C.)	93%	Bennett (R, Utah)	80%	Hickenlooper (R, Iowa)	75%	Talmadge (D, Ga.)	70%
Simpson (R, Wyo.)	89%	Jordan (R, Idaho)	78%	Fannin (R, Ariz.)	74%
Tower (R, Texas)	89%	Stennis (D, Miss.)	78%	McClellan (D, Ark.)	74%

WORST SENATORS: The 63 Senators in the following list (52 Democrats, 11 Republicans) made conservative ratings of less than 40%. Note the five who rated zero—all Democrats: the two Kennedys, Mondale from Minnesota, Williams from New Jersey, and Pell from Rhode Island.

Kennedy (D, Mass.)	0%	Moss (D, Utah)	5%	Mansfield (D, Mont.)	9%	Kuchel (R, Cal.)	20%
Kennedy (D, N. Y.)	0%	Bass (D, Tenn.)	7%	Proxmire (D, Wisc.)	9%	McIntyre (D, N. H.)	20%
Mondale (D, Minn.)	0%	Bayh (D, Ind.)	7%	Yarborough (D, Texas)	9%	Morse (D, Ore.)	20%
Pell (D, R. I.)	0%	Brewster (D, Md.)	7%	Gore (D, Tenn.)	10%	Smathers (D, Fla.)	20%

BEST REPRESENTATIVES: In 1965, 49 U. S. Representatives (32 Republicans, 17 Democrats) earned conservative ratings of 90% or better—6 of them with perfect (100%) scores:

100%—Buchanan and Edwards (R, Ala.); Gross (R, Iowa); Walker (R, Miss.); Williams (D, Miss.); Baring (D, Nev.)

98%—Andrews (D, Ala.); Dickinson and Martin (R, Ala.); Abernethy (D, Miss.); Hall (R, Mo.); Pool (D, Tex.)

97%—Colmer (D, Miss.); Watson (R, S. C.)

96%—Smith and Utt (R, Cal.); Haley (D, Fla.); Callaway (R, Ga.); Passman (D, La.); Devine (R, Ohio)

94%—Reid (R, Ill.); Waggoner (D, La.); Lennon (D, N. C.); Clancy (R, Ohio); Belcher (R, Okla.)

91%—Clawson (R, Cal.)

90%—Andrews (R, Ala.); Wilson and Younger (R, Cal.); Hansen (R, Idaho); Dole (R, Kans.); Long (D, La.); Battin (R, Mont.); Jonas (R, N. C.); Ashbrook and Betts (R, Ohio); Ashmore (D, S. C.); Quillen (R, Tenn.); Poff (R, Va.)

WORST DEMOCRAT REPRESENTATIVES:

There were 227 Democrats in the House who earned conservative ratings of less than 40%. Of these, 16 had zero ratings: Brown, Burton, Edwards and Hawkins from California; Dawson from Illinois; Edwards from Louisiana; Conyers, Diggs, and Dingell from Michigan; Fraser from Minnesota; Karsten from Missouri; Dow and Powell from New York; Byrne and Nix from Pennsylvania; Kastenmeier from Wisconsin.

WORST REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATIVES:

There were 14 Republicans in the House of Representatives who earned conservative ratings of less than 40%:

Tupper (Me.), Lindsay (N.Y.)	13%
Reid (N.Y.)	14%
Halpern (N.Y.)	15%
Horton (N.Y.)	24%
Mathias (Md.), McDade (Pa.)	31%
Fulton (Pa.)	33%
Dwyer (N.J.)	34%
Corbett, Schweiker (Pa.)	35%
Morse (Mass.)	36%
Cahill (N.J.)	37%
Fino (N.Y.)	39%

Political Action Package

The 89th Congress—in one session, under the whip of President Johnson's drive for "consensus"—enacted unconstitutional, socialistic legislation more damaging to the cause of freedom than all legislation enacted during the terms of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and John F. Kennedy.

Conversely, conservative accomplishments in the first session of the 89th Congress were pathetically few: In 1965, conservatives blocked repeal of the right-to-work section of the Taft-Hartley Act; they postponed Senate approval of the U.S.-U.S.S.R. Consular Treaty; they defeated home rule for the District of Columbia; they stalled, in committee, administration proposals for federal firearms legislation, expanded federal minimum wage laws, and unemployment compensation amendments.

Should all blame be placed on the President and Congress? I think not. Throughout the nation, constitutional conservatives, who had worked tirelessly to save their Republic, gave up or slowed down after the 1964 elections.

The few conservative victories in Congress during 1965 were made possible because of public support. The avalanche of socialistic legislation was possible because of apparent public indifference.

It is not too late to undo what has been done. On October 25, 1965, The New York Times published an article commenting on the adjournment of the first session of the 89th Congress. Note these remarks:

"Behind the partisan clatter attending the adjournment of Congress, there is surprising bipartisan agreement on one main point about the session: The voters have not yet grasped the extent of the last 10 months' legislative work . . .

"In plain truth . . . a good many members of both parties are in a state of uncertainty bordering on anxiety about how their constituents will react to their handiwork. They are streaming out of Washington today in a headlong rush to their home towns, eager for comfort and reassurance."

There is a cue to action for constitutional conservatives. Before election day 1966, every voter should know how the U. S. Representative from his district, and the two U. S. Senators from his State, voted on vital issues that came before Congress in 1965.

Six issues of this Report published during 1965—"First Roll Calls, 1965," May 31; "Second Roll Calls, 1965," June 14; "Third Roll Calls, 1965," August 2; "Fourth Roll Calls, 1965," August 30; "Fifth Roll Calls, 1965," November 8; and the present issue—show how every U. S. Senator voted on 46 roll calls during 1965 and how every U. S. Representative voted on 50 roll calls. The present Report shows the rating each member of Congress earned by the stands he took—shows how many conservative stands each member took, how many liberal stands, and how many times he took no stand at all when an important roll call was being taken.

In this Report last week ("The Remnant," December 13, 1965), we presented examples of what constitutional conservatives are doing.

These seven Reports—the five roll-call votes listed above, "The Remnant" of last week, and the present issue—could make a useful political action package for 1966: they provide constitutional conservatives in each district precise details to show voters why a member of Congress deserves support, or deserves voting out of office, because of the way he actually performed in 1965; they provide the basis of an effective platform for any candidate who wants to run as a constitutional conservative; they reveal the desperate need for political action by constitutional conservatives; they provide encouragement by giving examples of what others are doing.

These seven Reports are being offered as a "Political Action Package" at the following special rates:

1 Political Action Package (7 Reports) $1.00
50 Political Action Packages (350 Reports) $32.50
100 Political Action Packages (700 Reports) $60.00

Roll Calls Recorded In This Issue

HIGHWAY BEAUTIFICATION: On September 16, 1965, the Senate (by a stand of 72 to 19)

passed S 2084 (the Highway Beautification and Scenic Development Act), giving the Secretary of Commerce dictatorial powers to overrule state and local zoning laws along all interstate and primary highways. The vote is recorded in Column 43 under Senate—C indicating a conservative stand against the grant of autocratic power.

On October 7, 1965, the House (by a stand of 243 to 166) rejected a conservative amendment which would have left zoning determinations in the hands of state officials. This vote is recorded in Column 47 under House—C indicating a conservative stand for the defeated states rights amendment.

The basic principle of the states rights amendment was, however, incorporated in S 2084, as finally passed by the House and later approved by the Senate. In its final form, S 2084 leaves most zoning responsibility along interstate highways with state officials, empowering the Secretary of Commerce to withhold only 10% of committed federal funds when he disagrees with state zoning decisions (instead of 100%, as stipulated in the bill originally passed by the Senate), and providing for judicial review of actions by the Secretary in withholding highway funds.

POVERTY WAR: On September 24, 1965, the Senate (by a stand of 59 to 30) passed the conference version of HR 8283, the Economic Opportunity Act of 1965. The vote is recorded in Column 44 under Senate—C indicating a conservative stand against. The bill (authorizing $1,785,000,000 during the next fiscal year for poverty war programs) restricts but does not eliminate the veto power of governors over federal poverty programs in their states.

FOREIGN AID: On October 1, 1965, the House (by a stand of 209 to 199) rejected a proposed amendment of HR 10871, prohibiting foreign aid to nations which trade with communist North Vietnam. The vote is recorded in Column 46 under House—C indicating a conservative stand against aid to nations which are assisting our communist enemy in North Vietnam.

On October 5, 1965, the Senate (by a stand of 58 to 29) passed HR 10871 in its final form, appropriating $3,218,000,000 for regular foreign aid during fiscal 1966, and appropriating $714,188,000 for other foreign aid. The vote is recorded in Column 45 under Senate—C indicating a conservative stand against the appropriations.

RIGHT TO WORK: On October 15, 1965, liberals in the Senate tried to stop debate on HR 77, the bill to repeal the right-to-work section of the Taft Hartley Act. This effort to invoke cloture was defeated by a stand of 50 to 50 (invoking cloture requires approval of two-thirds of all Senators present). The vote is recorded in Column 46 under Senate—C indicating a conservative stand for continuing debate on the pending bill.

Failing to stop debate on HR 77, administration leaders announced that the effort to repeal section 14(b) of Taft Hartley would be dropped until the next session of Congress, which convenes in January, 1966.

MISSISSIPPI DELEGATION: On September 17, 1965, the House (by a stand of 240 to 156) adopted H Res 585, thus rejecting the efforts of civil rights agitators to unseat all five U. S. Representatives from Mississippi, on grounds that they were illegally elected in 1964 because not enough negroes were registered to vote in Mississippi. The vote is recorded in Column 43 under House—C indicating a conservative stand for rejecting the effort to unseat the duly elected Representatives from Mississippi.

It is illuminating to note that the Mississippi delegation in the House had an average conservative voting record of 96% during 1965—the best in the House.

D. C. HOME RULE: For many years, totalitarian liberals have tried to grant home rule to the District of Columbia, despite the constitutional requirement that Congress must govern the federal district. In 1965, the Senate, yielding to Johnsonian pressures, passed a D. C. Home Rule bill (recorded in the November 8, 1965, issue of this Report); but the House changed the bill (HR 4644) thus stopping D. C. home rule for the present. Prior to passage of the changed bill, conservatives made two unsuccessful efforts to kill home rule completely. The votes are recorded in Columns 44 and 45 under House—C indicating a conservative stand against D. C. Home Rule.

RENT SUBSIDY FUNDS: In July, 1965, both houses of Congress passed the Housing and Urban Development Act, authorizing, among other things, President Johnson's outrageous rent-subsidy scheme. For the voting, see "Fifth Roll Calls, 1965," the November 8, 1965, issue of this Report. For details on rent subsidy, see "Government Guaranteed Security," the July 19, 1965, issue of this Report.

In October, 1965, the House, in enacting the Second Supplemental Appropriations Bill for fiscal 1966 (HR 11588), voted (by a stand of 210 to 189) to delete funds for the rent-subsidy program—thus making it impossible for the administration to initiate the program. The vote is recorded in Column 48 under House—C indicating a conservative stand against the rent-subsidy funds.

HIGHER EDUCATION ACT: The Higher Education Act of 1965 (HR 9567), authorized a multi-billion dollar program of federal aid to colleges and college students. Title V of the Act created a Teachers Corps—to consist of teachers, selected and paid by the federal government, to teach children from low-income families. On October 20, 1965, the House had two important roll calls on HR 9567—one on a conservative effort to delete the Teachers Corps provision, the other on final passage of the bill.

By a stand of 239 to 165, the House rejected the effort to eliminate the Teachers Corps. The vote is recorded in Column 49 under House—C indicating a conservative vote against the Teachers Corps.

By a stand of 324 to 74, the House passed HR 9567, with the Teachers Corps provision included. This vote is recorded in Column 50 under House—C indicating a conservative stand against the Higher Education Act.

Later, when voting appropriations to implement the Higher Education Act, the House (by voice vote) refused funds for the Teachers Corps.

VOTING RECORDS

The capital letter in parentheses after each legislator's name indicates his party. The "%" column shows conservative percentage rating. The "C" column shows the number of conservative votes. The "L" column shows the number of liberal votes. The "NV" column indicates the number of times the legislator was absent or did not take a public stand.

SENATE

The 1965 ratings of Senators are based on 46 roll call votes tabulated in this and five other issues of the Report (May 31, June 14, August 2, August 30, and November 8, 1965). Column #43 -- Highway Beautification Act, S 2084; #44 -- Poverty War amendments, HR 8283; Column #45 -- Foreign Aid Appropriations, HR 10871; #46 -- Right-to-Work, HR 77, cloture. Virginia Democrat Senator Byrd resigned November 11.

HOUSE

The 1965 ratings of Representatives are based on 50 roll call votes tabulated in this and five other issues of the Report (May 31, June 14, August 2, August 30, and November 8, 1965). California Democrat Roosevelt resigned September 30 to become a permanent U. S. Ambassador to the UN. New York Republican Lindsay was elected Mayor of New York City on November 2. North Carolina Democrat Bonner died November 7. Representatives known to have been endorsed by the Committee on Political Education (COPE) of the AFL-CIO in the 1964 elections are indicated by an asterisk (*).

WHO IS DAN SMOOT?

Born in Missouri, reared in Texas, Dan Smoot went to SMU getting BA and MA degrees, 1938 and 1940. In 1941, he joined the faculty at Harvard as a Teaching Fellow, doing graduate work for a doctorate in American civilization. From 1942 to 1951, he was an FBI agent: three and a half years on communist investigations; two years on FBI headquarters staff; almost four years on general FBI cases in various places. He resigned from the FBI and, from 1951 to 1955, was commentator on national radio and television programs, giving both sides of controversial issues. In July, 1955, he started his present profit-supported, free-enterprise business: publishing The Dan Smoot Report, a weekly magazine available by subscription; and producing a weekly news-analysis radio and television broadcast, available for sponsorship by reputable business firms, as an advertising vehicle. The Report and broadcast give one side of important issues: the side that presents documented truth using the American Constitution as a yardstick. If you think Smoot's materials are effective against socialism and communism, you can help immensely — help get subscribers for the Report, commercial sponsors for the broadcast.

For prices on single and multiple copies of this Report, see bottom of the first page. How many people do you know who should read this Report?
